PART II — RULES 12b-25(b) AND (c)

If the subject report could not be filed without unreasonable effort or expense and the registrant seeks relief pursuant to Rule 12b-25(b), the following should be completed. (Check box if appropriate)

- (a) The reasons described in reasonable detail in Part III of this form could not be eliminated without unreasonable effort or expense;
- (b) The subject annual report, semi-annual report, transition report on Form 10-K, Form 20-F, 11-K, Form N-SAR or Form N-CSR, or portion thereof, will be filed on or before the fifteenth calendar day following the prescribed due date; or the subject quarterly report or transition report on Form 10-Q, or portion thereof, will be filed on or before the fifth calendar day following the prescribed due date; and

PART III — NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

The registrant is unable to file its Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2015 in a timely manner because the registrant needs additional time to review matters relating to its purchase of a substantial amount of treasury stock in late December 2015. As part of the registrant’s final review of its Form 10-K filing, the registrant discussed with its independent registered public accounting firm the facts and circumstances the registrant considered in making judgments based on applicable accounting guidance with respect to the registrant’s accounting for the purchase. The registrant is currently evaluating with its independent registered public accounting firm whether a correction to its fourth quarter 2015 earnings release is required. The registrant expects that any correction will show a decrease in the registrant’s net income in the amount of the premium the registrant paid over the fair market value of the treasury stock and a corresponding decrease in the cost of the treasury stock. Management is assessing the effect of the possible correction on the registrant’s internal control over financial reporting and will report its conclusion regarding the registrant’s internal control over financial reporting in the registrant’s Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2015 when the registrant files it. The registrant intends to file its Form 10-K within the 15 calendar day period set forth in Rule 12b-25(b) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.
